grains here?" The daughter smiled and replied "I sowed those grains and now it has grown as crops. So, I need a bullock cart and men to harvest and bring back the grains." Father was happy to know that she used the grains wisely. Father found her apt and gave her the responsibility of the fields. He distributed his other wealth equally among the other two daughters.

Glossary

distribute	give a share
responsibility	power
millet	a cereal grown in warm countries sacred	holy
harvest	yield
wisely	cleverly