Arikamedu

Arikamedu is an archaeological site situated near Pondicherry. The excavation revealed that it was a costal village that traded with Rome. An archaeologist found Roman lamps, glass, stone beads, gems, cutlery and crockery, wine containers etc. He noted that, for the local fishermen of the village, the antiques were new.

Arikamedu

5th Social Science Term II Unit 1.indd 104 13-08-2019 14:55:17